Craig G. Jones

Craig Jones is President and Managing Partner of Leadership Consulting Group, a team of like minded people who are passionate about using their time, talents and treasures for the greater good. Leadership Consulting Group exists to help individuals transform the way they lead themselves and others.

Craig has over 26 years of invaluable marketplace experience in sales, consulting and executive coaching to the Fortune 500 corporate environment. Craig has helped several leaders and their organizations advance to the next level, attract and retain top talent and create a leadership coaching culture.

Recently, one of Craig's key executive coaching clients, Old Mutual Financial Network, received award recognition from the Georgia Coach Association for "excellence through a commitment to coaching as a business strategy."

Craig approaches each client engagement with a similar perspective; when people align who they are with what they do and are adequately equipped on how to do it, they experience a sense of fulfilment, engagement and intentionality. Fulfilled, engaged and intentional people are more productive, provide better service to their clients and are more passionate about what they do.

Craig is credentialed through the International Coach Federation (ICF) as a Certified Coach and is also a member of the American Society for Training and Development (ASTD)

Craig holds a Bachelor of Science degree in Business Administration from the University of Florida. He, his wife Angie, and their two daughters, Rachael and Morgan, reside in Atlanta, GA.
